Me and comics were meant to be. As a kid, I always wanted to be an artist and an author, but at the same time. Now, I'm able to share stories through pages of drawings. Sometimes life just works out!

I studied Art and Business Management at the University of Delaware. Thanks to my educational background, I'm not just confident as an artist but as the person representing and marketing my art to a larger audience.

Since graduating, I have worked as the Volunteer & Community Affairs Manager at a small non-profit animal welfare organization. received a promotion from Recreation Assistant to Life Enrichment Coordinator at a skilled nursing facility, and am currently behind the counter at a local cafe in order to focus more of my time on my art.

Even through demanding careers, I have continuously worked hard as a freelance artist, focusing on digital illustrations and comics. My portfolio includes a graphic novel series, a 26-page comic (completed in three months as a thesis project in school), as well as various prints, merchandise, and side projects.

SEVEN MONTHS LATER...

OH,
IT LOOKS SO NICE!

THANKS
FOR INVITING ME.
I REALLY NEEDED
A BREAK TODAY.

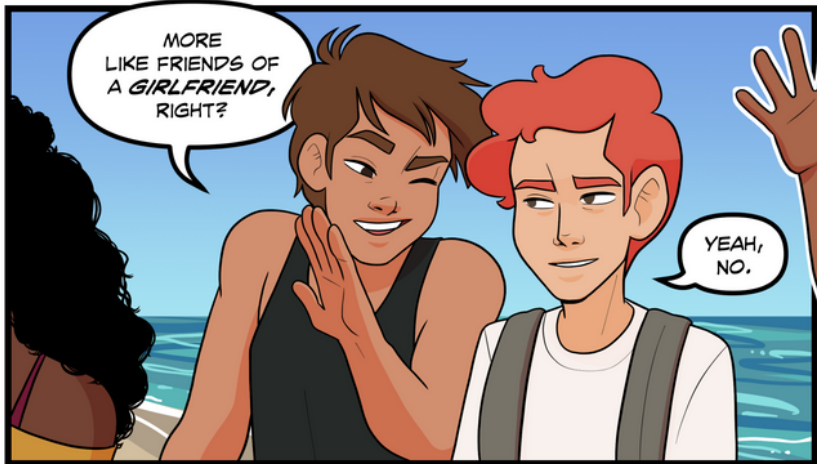

Y-YEAH.

WHO ARE
WE MEETING
AGAIN?

FRIENDS OF A FRIEND.

MORE
LIKE FRIENDS OF
A GIRLFRIEND, RIGHT?

YEAH,
NO.

ALOHA!
YOU MADE IT.

SO YOU'D REALLY RATHER LOSE A TOE THAN GIVE UP COFFEE?

I GUESS IT DEPENDS ON THE TOE...

DEPENDS ON THE TOE?

YEAH!

THERE'S A HUGE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A BIG TOE AND ALL THOSE MIDDLE ONES.

HA HA HA! I WILL ALWAYS ENVY YOUR THOUGHT PROCESSES.

SHUT UP!
